HOME FUNDRAISING SHORTLISTED FOR NATIONAL FUNDRAISING AWARDS

Announced as a finalist for the National Fundraising Awards 2017, HOME Fundraising has been shortlisted for the Most Committed Company to the Sector category.

Dominic Will, Managing Director of HOME Fundraising, said: “At HOME, we’ve long been a vocal advocate for the sector, always striving to help it grow and develop. In the past year, during a major period of change for the sector, we’ve been particularly active; contributing to a public fundraising delegation from the Cabinet Office, supporting the introduction of a compliance directorate, the new fundraising regulator and more. It’s a real honour to be shortlisted for this award.”

The National Fundraising Awards, run by the Institute of Fundraising, showcases excellence in charity fundraising. HOME is shortlisted for the Most Committed Company to the Sector award alongside JustGiving, Givergy, Donorfy, Legacy Link and Local Hospice Lottery.

Will adds: “We’re shortlisted alongside some fantastic companies, so many congratulations to all the other finalists for this year’s awards.”

The winners will be determined by an independent judging panel and announced at the National Fundraising Awards on Monday 3rd July 2017.
